PRESIDENT REPORT: Hanna Calleri

- Shade structure project:
 - Funds have been given to RUSD for the full project amount
 - An update of project status was sent to Jackson families in the PTO newsletter

FINANCIAL REPORT: Shawna Hook

- Hanna proposes a PTO credit card for event usage. Approx $20,000 was spent on Hanna's personal card for events this year. Shawna Hook will look into the policy and propose options at the March 2026 meeting
- $148,479 total to date

PRINCIPAL REPORT: Beth Weisser on behalf of Molly Griffin

- Health Aide Update- A few parents and a retired EMT are rotating shifts until a full time position is filled
- Boys and girls basketball season has kicked off. Both teams are 2-0
- 5th Grade: SHIELD Program by El Dorado County Sheriffs office has begun. On campus all next week during recess and lunches interacting with students
- Kindness Week was last week and multiple students participated in the BINGO cards
- Enrolment for 2026-2027 registration opened yesterday

COMMITTEE REPORTS

FAMILY GLOW NIGHT: Megan Montes de Oca and Hanna Calleri

- Thursday February 5th 6-8pm
- 293 students and approximately 300 parents registered
- Setup immediately after school for 90 minutes
- Jackson Parent, Gillian Pirroli made glow in the dark stamps for the event
- Robot Man arrives at 7pm. Stands at 8 ft tall
- At the door each person will receive one ticket per guest for pizza and water
- Hanna proposed selling tickets next year to help control RSVP's
- 35 pizzas ordered from Costco
- PTO working the door will be checking in families at the door and handing out pizza tickets
- Jaggy will be at the entrance welcoming guests
- Boys Team Charity will be distributing food and beverages during the event
- Spirit Day during school hours- neon colors

SCIENCE FAIR: Becky Miller and Danielle Rlos

- March 6th
- Former Jackson Principal, Michele Williamson confirmed as a judge
- 16 students registered as of today. 35 participants last year
- Teachers will send an email to families as a reminder to enroll and perhaps incentivise participation

GALA- Kentucky Derby Theme: Hanna Calleri

- March 14th
- 124 tickets sold
- Goal is 240 ticket sales
- Hanna proposed Gala runs every other year if attendance is down. In lieu of a gala run an auction from the library for a week. Raising $30,000 would be an ideal goal if we pivoted in this direction. Not ideal, but an option if attendee numbers trend lower.

VOLUNTEERS AND ROOM PARENTS: Stacie Roberts

- Email sent to TK and Kinder classes to promote gala
- Jackson parent, Shannon Swanson expressed interest in taking over the role for next school year

DINING FOR DOLLARS: Alyssa Leon

- 1/28- Viscusos (Gala kick off) $350
- 2/25- Letherbys
- 3/25- Chicken Shop Cameron Park

Meeting adjourned by Hanna Calleri at 7:34pm
